In San Diego, the total number of index crimes decreased 0.6% in 2002 to 50,124, compared to 50,445 in 2001. Index crimes include murders, rapes, robberies, aggravated assaults, burglaries, larcenies, and motor vehicle thefts. The Department of Justice Uniform Crime Reporting program collects information on these crime types from law enforcement agencies throughout the United States and uses the data to measure crime nationwide.

The total index crime rate per one thousand population was 39.92 in 2002, a slight increase from the total index crime rate of 39.50 in 2001. The increase in rates, despite a small decrease in the number of index crimes, is due to a one-time population adjustment, which was made to correct overestimates of growth in previous years.

Violent Crimes

Violent crimes – murder, rape, robbery, and aggravated assault -- decreased 2.9% in 2002 from 2001. The rate of violent crimes per one thousand population was 5.73, down from 5.80 in 2001.

Homicides decreased 7.8% in 2002. Rapes decreased by 3.5% through the end of 2002, with 330 cases compared to 342 cases in 2001. Robberies decreased by 5.9% in 2002, with 1,627 cases compared to 1,729 in 2001. Aggravated assaults decreased by 1.8% through the end of 2002, with 5,189 cases compared to 5,284 the previous year.

Additionally, there was a 1.5% increase in domestic violence cases, from 10,694 in 2001 to 10,856 this year.

Violence and property crimes attributed to gang members decreased 1.9%, from 874 in 2001 to 857 this year.

Property Crimes

Property crimes -- burglary, larceny and auto theft -- decreased 0.3% in 2002 from 2001.

Burglaries increased 5.8%. Commercial burglaries accounted for the largest increase in burglary crime. Several commercial burglary series contributed to the increase, including a window smash series in Mid City (27 cases), a night deposit box series citywide (10 cases), and a soft drink machine series countywide (15 cases in San Diego alone).

Thefts (larceny) decreased by 1.9% from 25,050 in 2001 to 24,577 in 2002. Auto thefts decreased by 0.5%, from 10,770 in 2001 to 10,715 in 2002.

Clearances

The percentage of index crimes cleared during 2002 was 18.3%, compared to 17.7% in 2001. An offense is "cleared," or solved, by arrest or by exception. Clearance by arrest occurs when a suspect is arrested, charged, and turned over to the courts for prosecution. Clearance by exception occurs when the suspect is deceased, is already in custody, or is serving a sentence.

Police cleared or solved 59.7% of violent crimes last year, compared to 58.3% in 2001. The national average for violent crime clearances was 46.2% in 2001. Police cleared or solved 11.3% of property crimes last year, compared to 10.7% in 2001. The national average for property crime clearances was 16.2% in 2001.

Hate Crimes

Hate crimes -- crimes directed against persons, groups, or property because of race, color, gender, religion, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability -- decreased from 168 in 2001 to 88 cases in 2002, with decreases in each category. Of those cases 52 (59.1%) were identified as crimes motivated by ethnicity, while 24 cases (27.3%) were motivated by sexual orientation.

Juvenile Arrests and Crime Victims

Arrests of juveniles decreased by 9.1% in 2002, with 9,360 arrests in 2002 compared to 10,297 in 2001. Of these arrests, the biggest decrease -- 23.3% -- was in arrests made during curfew hours from 10 p.m. to 8:29 a.m.

The number of crimes with juvenile victims decreased 2.7%, to 766 in 2002 from 787 in 2001. Of these cases, the biggest decrease -- 5.7% -- occurred during curfew hours -- from 10 p.m. to 8:29 a.m.

Traffic Incidents

The total number of traffic collisions increased 3.3%, to 12,535 in 2002 from 12,136 in 2001. Of these collisions, fatal collisions remained equal at 52 for both 2001 and 2002.
